Present: Commissioners Wittenbach, Bolton, Tillotson, Lapham, and Stimpson

Absent: Dan Bruggeman

Others Present: Mike Sexton and Martin Marshall

I. Approval of Minutes

Motion by Tillotson, seconded by Lapham, to approve the April 15, 2019 minutes, Motion carried.

II. Finance Report

Martin Marshall reviewed the Finance Report and reported on balances in restricted monies.

III. Parks Update

Mike Sexton reviewed the status of the various parks.

Bicentennial needs a caretaker.

Gerber has a couple of birthday parties scheduled and a troop camping event.

Iron Lake has had platform dock installed to improve boat launching.

Medina – The entry drive is holding up well but there is standing water on both sides that need to be addressed

Ramsdell has a graduation party scheduled

In general, the parks have been mowed twice but it has been difficult to keep up with the volume of rain that has fallen.

Mike also met with Jim Hazelman of the US Fish and Wildlife and reviewed all of the parks. A plan of action for all parks has been developed with Mr. Hazelman committing some of his resources to improve the parks. Mike reviewed the specifics of each park.

IV. 2020-2024 Parks & Recreation Plan

Marty reviewed the results of the survey about park usage and suggestions. The survey is required by and will be used in the updated Parks Plan.

V. Adjournment

Motion by Bolton, seconded by Lapham, to adjourn the meeting at 12:25 p.m. Motion carried.
