- 1) LENAWEЕ COUNTY PROBATE/JUVENILE COURT

WITNESSETH:

The general purpose of this Agreement is to set forth the wages, hours and working conditions which shall prevail for the duration of this Agreement and to promote orderly and peaceful labor relations for the mutual interest of the Employer, its employees and the Union. Unit Description

Section 1.0 Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of Act 379 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, the Employer does hereby recognize the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment for the term of this Agreement of the employees of the Employer included in the bargaining unit described below:

Definition of Employee

Section 1.1 A regular full-time employee is defined as one who works at least thirty-five (35) hours per week on a regular basis. A regular part-time employee is one who works at least twenty (20) hours but less than thirty-five (35) hours per week on a regular basis.

Federally Funded Employees

Section 1.2 It is recognized that certain employees within one or more classifications described in this Section of this Agreement are presently and/or will in the future be employed pursuant to the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (“CETA”) or successor or similar legislation. To the extent required by law, CETA employees shall enjoy the conditions of employment provided for in this Agreement.

Definition of Temporary Employee

Section 1.3 A temporary employee is defined as a person employed on a temporary basis or for a limited period of time, not exceeding nine (9) months when hired to replace an employee on medical leave of absence, or three (3) months when hired for all other temporary openings. Neither this contract nor any of its benefits, terms or conditions shall be applicable to a temporary employee. Temporary employees replacing an employee on medical leave of absence shall be eligible for seniority after nine (9) months which shall date from the employee’s date of hire. Such employees shall be eligible for fringe benefits after nine (9) months, but fringe benefits will not apply retroactively. Employees hired to other temporary vacancies shall be eligible for seniority from the employee’s date of hire and fringe benefits after three (3) months provided the employee has passed the probationary period. Fringe benefits shall not be retroactive.

MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITY

Employer Rights

Section 2.0 It is hereby agreed that the customary and usual rights, powers, functions and authority of management are vested in the Employer. These rights include, but are not limited to, those provided by statute or law along with the right to direct, hire, promote, demote with cause, layoff, transfer, assign and retain employees in positions within the Lenawee County Court System, and also to suspend, investigate, demote with cause, discharge for just cause or take other disciplinary action for just cause which is necessary to maintain the efficient administration of the Courts. It is also agreed that the Employer has the right to determine the method, means and personnel, employees or otherwise, by which the Courts’ business shall be conducted and to take whatever action is necessary to carry out the duties and obligations of the County to the taxpayers thereof. The employer shall also have the power to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations relating to personnel policies, procedures and working conditions not inconsistent with the express terms of this Agreement.

UNION SECURITY

Agency Shop

Section 3.0 All employees included in the collective bargaining unit set forth in Section 1.0, thirty-one (31) days after the start of their employment with the Employer or the effective date of this Agreement,

G.E.L.C. Probate/Juvenile Court ~ January 1, 2018 through December 31, 2020

Payroll Deduction for Union Dues

Section 3.1

- (a) During the life of this Agreement, the Employer agrees to deduct Union membership dues and initiation fees uniformly levied in accordance with the Constitution and the By-Laws of the Union from each employee covered by this Agreement who executes and files with the Employer a proper check-off authorization form.
- (b) Individual authorization forms shall be furnished, or approved by the Union, and, when executed, filed by it with the County Clerk's Office.

Deductions for any calendar month shall be remitted to the designated financial officer of Governmental Employees Labor Council, not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month.
- (e) The Union shall notify the County in writing of the proper amount of Union membership dues and initiation fees and any subsequent changes in such amounts. REPRESENTATION

Steward

Section 4.0 The employer recognizes the right of the Local Union to have for representation one (1) chapter chairperson, one (1) steward and one (1) alternate from non-probationary employees, from each bargaining unit covered by this Agreement. The steward shall serve as a representative of the Chapter for purpose of contract administration and the transmission and receipt of the information between the Employer and the Union, and in the investigation and presentation of grievances under the Grievance Procedure established in the Agreement. The Chapter Chairperson shall act as Union representative where specifically provided for in the Agreement. The Union agrees that the steward will continue to fulfill his regularly-assigned duties to the fullest extent possible and his responsibilities as a steward shall not be used to avoid those duties. The steward shall act in a manner that will not unreasonably disrupt or interfere with the normal functions of the Department.

Verbal step meetings between a steward and supervisor or his designee shall be scheduled at least one (1) hour before the end of the steward's next scheduled working shift. If it is necessary for the steward to temporarily leave his assignment to process a grievance, he shall first obtain permission from his immediate supervisor. Meetings at Steps 3 and 4 of the Grievance Procedure and special conference shall be scheduled at least one (1) hour before the end of the scheduled working shift.

The Employer agrees to compensate the steward and/or the Chapter Chairperson at his straight-time regular hourly rate for all reasonable time lost from his regularly scheduled working hours while processing a grievance in accordance with the Grievance procedure. The steward shall not abuse the privileges extended herein. The alternate shall act only in the absence of the steward.

Visitation

Section 4.1 Authorized staff representatives of the Union shall be permitted to visit the operation of the Employer during working hours to talk with the steward and/or officers of the local Union and/or representatives of the Employer concerning matters covered by this Agreement, provided that such representatives shall have notified the Employer prior to such visit, and provided that such visit does not unreasonably interfere with or disrupt normal operations of the Department.

Union Activities

Section 4.2 The Union agrees that, except as specifically provided by the terms and provisions of this Agreement, employees shall not be permitted to engage in Union activities during working hours which interferes with the normal operations of the Employer and must not interfere with the progress of the work force.

Bargaining Union Employees

Section 4.3 Bargaining Unit Employees will be represented by Bargaining Unit committee composed as follows:

One (1) member from Probate/Juvenile Court. The Bargaining Committee Member shall be paid for time lost from work for attendance at collective bargaining sessions up to a maximum of forty (40) hours pay per Court.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Purpose of Grievance Procedure

Section 5.0 The Employer and the Union support and subscribe to an orderly method of adjusting grievances. To this end, the Employer and the Union agree that the procedure set forth herein shall serve as the means of the peaceful settlement of all disputes that may arise between them concerning the interpretation or the application of this Agreement.

A grievance shall be defined as any dispute which may arise between the Employer and the Union or between the Employer and the employee, concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of any of the terms and conditions of the Agreement.

Grievance Procedure

Section 5.1

Step 1. Verbal Procedure

An employee who believes that he has a grievance shall discuss the matter with his immediate supervisor within four (4) days following the events that caused the grievance. If requested by the employee, his or her steward may be present.

Step 2. Written Procedure

If the grievance is not settled at the Verbal step, it may be appealed by reducing the grievance to writing on the appropriate grievance form and delivering the same to his or her Department Head or the Department Head's designee, within five (5) days after the discussion with his or her immediate supervisor in the verbal procedure. The Department Head or his or her designee shall give a written answer to the steward and grievant within five (5) days after receipt of the written grievance. Verbal discussion shall not be foreclosed at this step.

Step 3.

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step 2, it may be appealed by delivery to the Employer or Employer's designee within five (5) days after receipt of the answer in Step 2, a written request for a meeting concerning the grievance. A meeting shall be held within ten (10) days thereafter. The meeting shall be attended by the steward writing the grievance and/or the Chapter Chairperson, the staff representative of the Union, together with the Employer representatives. The grievant may be allowed to attend the meeting if requested by either party. The Employer or Employer's designee shall give his written answer to the Union within seven (7) days following the meeting.

Step 4. Arbitration Request

If the grievance is not settled satisfactorily at Step 3, the Union may appeal the decision to arbitration by notifying the Employer or Employer's designee of its intent to arbitrate in writing within fifteen (15) days following receipt of the Employer or Employer's designee's answer in Step 3. The Chief Steward and the grievant may attend the arbitration hearing.

Selection of Arbitrator

Section 5.2 If a timely request for arbitration is filed by the Union on a grievance, the parties shall within ten (10) days after the request for arbitration is filed, promptly endeavor or select by mutual agreement one (1) arbitrator who shall decide the matter. If no agreement is reached, the arbitrator shall be selected from a panel of arbitrators obtained from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. The parties shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of not less than five (5) qualified arbitrators, all of whom shall be members of the National Academy of Arbitrators. Upon receipt of such a list, the parties shall alternatively strike names until one (1) remains and he or she shall then serve as the arbitrator in the matter. The flip of a coin shall determine who begins the striking process described in the previous sentence. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally between the Union and the Employer, but each party shall bear its own expenses including the wages of any witness called by the parties. If the Chief Steward and grievant are at the hearing and lost time from work, they shall be compensated by the party calling them to the hearing.

Either party may request a transcript of the arbitration hearing. The requesting party shall be responsible for the payment of the transcript. The arbitration shall be conducted under the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

Arbitrator's Powers

Section 5.3 The arbitrator's powers shall be limited to deciding the case at hand and the arbitrator shall not have any power to add to, subtract from or to otherwise modify any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitration award shall not be retroactive earlier than the beginning of the pay period prior to the one in which the grievance was first raised. The arbitration decision shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employees.

Time Limitations

Section 5.4 In the event that any grievance is not processed to the next step in the Grievance Procedure within the time limits specified, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the last answer by the Employer on the grievance. In the event that any grievance is not answered by the Employer within the time limits specified, it shall be considered as granted. The time limits at any level of the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. Neither party will unreasonably refuse to consent to an extension of the time for answering the grievance when requested by the other party.

Definition of Days

Section 5.5 Wherever the word "days" is used in this Grievance Procedure, it shall be defined as those days which are scheduled for work between Monday and Friday, both inclusive, excluding holidays recognized under this Agreement.

SPECIAL CONFERENCES

Special Conferences

Section 6.0 Special conferences for the discussion of important matters (not grievances) may be arranged at a mutually satisfactory time between the Union and the Employer representative within then (10) regularly scheduled working days after request of either party, subject to the following conditions:

- a) Such meetings shall be held not more frequently than once each calendar month and shall be limited to ninety (90) minutes unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Union and the Employer.
- b) Such meetings may be attended by two (2) members of the bargaining unit, the local Union President when he/she is not a member of the bargaining unit, a representative of G.E.L.C. and designated representative of the Employer.
- c) There must be at least one (1) calendar week's advance written notice of the desire to have such meeting, which notice must be accompanied by an agenda of the subjects the party serving such notice wishes to discuss. If both parties have subjects they wish to discuss, they shall exchange agenda at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to such meeting. Discussions at such special conferences shall be limited to the items set forth in the agenda. Employer's willingness to discuss or not discuss any item on the agenda shall not be subject to a grievance.
- d) Employees shall be paid for all time necessarily lost from their regularly scheduled work while attending such conference.

DISCIPLINE

Just Cause

Section 7.0 The Employer will not discharge or discipline a seniority employee without just cause. If the employee is at work, prior to issuance of a formal disciplinary action, the employee will be given the opportunity to participate in a disciplinary interview. The steward will be notified of the time and the place of the interview. A copy of the disciplinary action will be given to the steward.

Written Warning

Section 7.1 Where warranted by just cause and where an oral warning has not resulted in correction or where more severe initial action is warranted, a written reprimand shall be issued to the employee, a copy to the steward and a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.

Suspension

Section 7.2 This action temporarily suspends an employee from employment without pay for a definite period of time. Where disciplinary action has not proved effective or where the seriousness of the offense or conditions warrant, the employee may be suspended without pay by his Department Head.

Discharge

Section 7.3 This action permanently removes the employee from employment with the Employer. When other forms of disciplinary action are proved ineffective, or when the seriousness of the offense or conditions warrant, the Department Head may dismiss the employee.

Immediate Termination

Section 7.4 Although the Union and the Employer subscribe to the principle of progressive discipline, both of the parties realize that there may be some offenses which require the immediate termination of the employee for the first violation.

NO STRIKES-NO LOCKOUTS

No Strike Pledge

Section 8.0 The Union agrees that during the life of this Agreement neither the Union, its agents nor its members will authorize, instigate, aid or engage in work stoppage, slowdown, strike or other concerted activity which interferes with the operation of the Employer. The Employer agrees that during the same period there will be no lockouts.

SENIORITY

Seniority Definition

Section 9.0 For the purposes of administering the seniority provisions contained in this Agreement including layoff and recall, job openings and eligibility for benefits, seniority shall be by individual bargaining units. The bargaining units are those described in Section 1.0 of this Agreement. Seniority shall be defined as the length of the employee's continuous service within the bargaining unit wherein the employee is employed commencing from the employee's last date of hire, provided that seniority for fringe benefit purposes shall be based upon the last day of hire with the County; seniority for pay purposes shall be by classification on a County-wide basis.

The parties to this Agreement have initialed a seniority roster of all bargaining unit members. It is the intention of the parties that the amount of seniority that each bargaining unit member has prior to the date of this Agreement be continued and added to for service during the life of this Agreement.

Probationary Period

Section 9.1 All Probation Officers of all of the seniority units covered by the Agreement shall be considered probationary employees for a period of six (6) months, after which time their seniority shall be as of the last date of hire in the appropriate seniority unit.

All other employees shall be considered probationary employees for a period of three (3) months after which time their seniority shall be as of their last date of hire. Until an employee has completed a probationary period, he may be laid off, terminated or disciplined at the Employer's discretion without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure. The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay and wages set forth in this Agreement.

Superseniority

Section 9.2 The President, Chapter Chairperson and elected steward, for the purpose of layoff for lack of work or funds and recalls to work following such layoff only, for the term of their office, shall be considered as having more seniority than any other employee within their bargaining unit. They shall be the last to be laid off for lack of work from their unit and the first to be recalled to work in their unit following such layoff providing they have the then-present ability to satisfactorily perform the available work in such area without additional training.

Loss of Seniority

Section 9.3 An employee shall lose his seniority and his employment relationship with the county and shall be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- a) He quit or resigns;
- b) He is discharged for just cause;
- c) He retires or is retired;
- d) He has been on layoff status for a period of two (2) years or a period equal to his seniority, whichever is less, and has not been recalled;
- e) He fails to return to work at the specified time upon the expiration of the leave of absence, vacation, recall from layoff or disciplinary suspension, unless other arrangements are reasonably agreed upon by the employee and the employer;
- f) He is absent from work for three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer. It is understood that employees are expected to notify the Employer that they will be absent in accordance with the Departmental rules;
- g) If he accepts employment elsewhere while on leave of absence; except Union employment.

Seniority List

Section 9.4 The Employer shall maintain a roster of employees, arranged according to seniority showing name, classification and seniority date. Employees who are employed on the same date shall be placed on the seniority list in alphabetical order of surnames. An up-to-date copy of the seniority list shall be furnished to the Union every three (3) months.

Eligibility of Benefits

Section 9.5 All new employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement will begin receiving benefits on the nearest eligibility date following the completion of ninety (90) days of employment from the date of hire. Employees who work twenty (20) hours per week but less than thirty-five (35) hours per week shall be eligible to receive pro-rated paid leave time and insurance coverage, sixty (60%) percent of which shall be paid for by the Employer provided the employee elects full coverage. Employees who work twenty (20) hours per week but less than thirty-five (35) hours per week and are currently receiving full insurance coverage shall continue to receive full insurance coverage paid for by the Employer.

Seniority and Benefit Accumulations

Section 9.6 An Employee shall retain and shall continue to accumulate seniority while on all approved leaves of absence unless otherwise specifically provided in one of the Leave of Absence Sections of this Agreement. Benefits such as paid leave days shall not accrue, continue or be paid during any leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) calendar days unless otherwise specifically provided for in this Agreement. There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of leave benefits or types of absences. Medical, dental and life insurance shall continue when the employee is on an approved sick leave on the following basis:

Less than ten (10) years seniority at the time of the leave of absence begins:	Six (6) months beyond the month in which the leave of absence begins

Ten (10) years or more seniority at the time the leave of absence begins:	Nine (9) months beyond the month in which the leave of absence begins.

COBRA Election

Section 9.7 Employees who are laid off or whose employment is terminated will be allowed to continue their medical/surgical insurance coverage if they are qualified under the terms of the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Act of 1985 (“COBRA”).

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Layoff Defined

Section 10.0

Temporary Layoffs: A temporary layoff is for a period of for (5) working days. An employee on temporary layoff may not exercise his seniority right to bump into other classifications.

Other than Temporary Layoff: An other than temporary layoff for other than five (5) working days.

Whenever it becomes necessary to lay off employees in the manner herein provided for, the layoff shall be by inverse seniority with the understanding that the more senior employee may reverse that process by exercising his/her seniority to bump the least senior employee in the affected classification.

- 1) Into a vacant position in the same classification.
- 2) Into the position of the least senior employee within the same classification.

- 3) Into a vacant position in another classification at the same pay level.
- 4) Into the position of the least senior employee in another classification at the same pay level.
- 5) Into a vacant position in another classification at the next lower pay level.
- 6) Into the position of the least senior employee in another classification at the next lower pay level.
- 7) Into a vacant position in another classification at any lower pay level.
- 8) Into the position in another classification at any lower pay level.
- 9) This procedure shall be applied to each employee replaced by application of this procedure until the employee is transferred or laid off.

The layoff provisions contained in this section and under this heading are subject to the ability of the employee to perform the job to which the affected employee desires to bump in accordance with recognized performance levels normally required of employees holding the position to which the employee intends to bump.

Notification of Layoff

Section 10.1 Except in an instance beyond the control of the Employer, the Employer agrees to give three (3) weeks' advance notification of layoff and, if possible, to state in the notification the anticipated duration of the layoff.

Recall

Section 10.2 In the event that the work force is increased, recall to work shall be in the reverse order of layoff from work. Recall of employees, as provided for in the preceding sentence, shall be subject to the recalled employee's ability to perform the job available in accordance with performance levels normally recognized and required of employees normally holding that position.

Notification of Recall

Section 10.3 Notification of recall from layoff shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, deliverable to addressee only, to the employee's last known address. The notice shall give the employee a minimum of the (10) calendar days within which to respond after the notice of recall has been mailed. Employees, who decline recall or who, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, fail to respond within the time set for return to work shall be presumed to have resigned and their name shall be removed from the seniority and preferred eligibility list.

Benefits During Layoff

Section 10.4 Benefits shall not be accrued, continued or be paid during layoffs. Employees who are laid off shall be entitled to obtain medical/surgical insurance coverage in accordance with the provisions of the COBRA legislation.

Voluntary Layoff

Section 10.5 In the event layoffs become necessary, the Employer agrees to offer the employees in the affected job classification the option of voluntary layoff. In the event that more than enough individuals opt for voluntary layoff, the choice of who shall be laid off shall be made by the presiding judge. Voluntary layoff shall be for no more than thirty (30) days provided:

- 1) An employee who elects voluntary layoff shall not have the right to return to active work for thirty (30) days unless recalled by the presiding judge, and
- 2) The presiding judge may recall an employee on voluntary layoff at any time.

Employees on voluntary layoff shall not have benefits reduced except that such employees shall not accumulate paid leave days while laid off.

JOB OPENINGS

Bidding

Section 11.0 When it is necessary to fill a new job classification or a vacancy in an existing job classification, such vacancy shall be posted on the bulletin board for a period of seven (7) regularly-scheduled working days during which time employees may bid therefore by submitting a job vacancy application form. In the event employees are relatively equally qualified, the employee with the most seniority shall be awarded the position. Qualifications shall include verified past experience, training and employee work record. In the event there are no bidders for such vacancy or, if among those bidding therefore, there are none that have the above-referred-to qualifications, then the Employer shall be free to hire new, fully-qualified employees to fill such jobs. In the event the job vacancy is filled through the bidding procedure, the employee thus awarded the job shall be transferred thereto as soon as is practicable. The Employer may fill the vacancy during the posting period. No job will be posted so long as there are employees in the classification who are laid off and who are capable as above described to perform the job available.

Restriction on Bidding Process

Section 11.1

- a) Any employee who is awarded a job under the bidding procedure shall not be awarded another job, the rate range of which is equal to or less than his present job, under the bidding procedure during the next succeeding six (6) months.
- b) Any employee who requests to be removed from a job classification for which he had bid, as above provided, shall be ineligible to bid for another job during the six (6) month period following the date of the setback. The parties may, by mutual agreement, waive this restriction in exceptional situations.
- c) In the event the job to be bid on has funding requirements, the same shall be stated on the posting and bidding shall be limited to those employees who can meet the requirements.
- d) If an employee successfully bids for a job opening, only the one next opening in the succession created by the initial opening shall be subject to the posting and bidding procedure, and the Employer shall have the right to fill all further openings.

- e) Employees shall be ineligible to bid on positions that would result in a pure lateral transfer. A pure lateral transfer shall mean a transfer within the same classification that does not result in a substantial job-duty change.

Temporary Transfers

Section 11.2 The Employer shall have the right to temporarily transfer employees irrespective of their seniority status from one job classification to another to cover for employees who are absent for the period of such absence. The Employer shall also have the right to temporarily transfer employees irrespective of their seniority status to fill jobs or temporary vacancies or take care of unusual conditions or situations or for training purposes, which may arise for a period of not to exceed sixty (60) days unless this time is mutually extended. It is understood and agreed that any employee temporarily transferred in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall not acquire any permanent title or right to the job to which he is temporarily transferred but shall retain his classification from which he was transferred. If an employee is temporarily transferred as provided in this Section, to a job classification for which the rate range is lower than the rate range for his regular job classification, his hourly rate of pay shall not be reduced. If such temporary transfer is higher than the rate range for his regular job classification, he shall, receive the first step of pay applicable for the job that is higher than the employee's present rate.

Promotional Trial Period

Section 11.3 An employee awarded the job through the bidding procedure shall be given a fair trial to prove his ability to perform the work required not to exceed thirty (30) working days unless extended by the Employer. When an employee fails to qualify during such period, he shall be returned to his former job and the Employer shall advise the employee, in writing, of the reasons why the employee failed to qualify. If during such trial period the employee wishes to return to his former job, he shall be permitted to do so provided he has advised the Employer, in writing, of the reasons why he does not wish to remain in the job for which he has successfully bid. The purpose of the job probationary period is to give the employee an opportunity to demonstrate that he has the ability, skills and other attributes to satisfactorily perform all aspects of the job.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Extended Sick Leave

Section 12.0 Extended sick leave without pay shall be granted, upon application from the employee, for illness or injury, subject to the Employer's right to require medical proof of disability or illness. An employee may be on sick leave for a period of up to eighteen (18) months. In the case of good cause, an additional six (6) months shall be granted (seniority allowing). Sick leave shall not exceed twenty-four (24) months or the length of employee's seniority at the time the sick leave begins, whichever is less. Seniority shall terminate and not continue beyond that time. During sick leave of absence, an employee may accrue additional seniority up to a maximum of nine (9) months of such leave of absence. The Employer may require, as a condition of continuance of any extended sick leave, proof of continuing disability or illness. In situations where the employee's physical condition reasonably raises a question as to the employee's capability to perform his job, the Employer may require a medical examination, and if cause is found, require the employee to take an extended sick leave of absence. The Employer may require, as a condition of any sick leave, regardless of duration, a medical certificate setting forth reasons for the sick leave when there is a reason to believe the health or safety of personnel may be affected or that an employee is abusing sick leave. Falsifications of the medical certificate or falsely setting forth the reasons for the absence shall constitute just cause for discipline, up to and including dismissal.

Examinations

Section 12.1 Physical and mental examinations may be required of all employees of the Employer, such examinations to be made by a physician chosen by the Employer and paid for by the Employer. All present and future employees may be required to have a regular physical and mental examination at such intervals as shall be fixed by the Employer and when requested by the Employer, prior to granting such leave and/or upon the return from absence due to illness or injury, such periodic examinations to be made by a physician chosen by the Employer, and shall be at the expense of the Employer. Employees required to report for physical or mental examinations shall be paid for time lost from work. If a physical or mental examination performed by a medical doctor of the Employer's choice at the Employer's expense reveals such physical or mental unfitness, the Employer reserves the right to require employees to take a leave of absence without pay for those who are not physically or mentally fit to perform their duties satisfactorily. If the employee disagrees with such doctor's findings then the employee, at his own expense, may obtain a physical or mental examination from a medical doctor of his choice. Should there be a conflict in the findings of the two (2) doctors, then a third (3rd) doctor mutually satisfactorily to the Employer and the Union shall give the employee a physical or mental examination. The fee charged by the third (3rd) doctor shall be shared equally between the Employer and the Union and his finding shall be binding on the employee, Employer and the Union.

Personal Leave

Section 12.2 An employee who has completed his probationary period may be granted a leave of absence for personal reasons without pay and without loss of seniority for a period not to exceed six (6) months in any calendar year, provided he obtains advance written permission from the Employer or the Employer's designated representative and can be spared from work for that purpose. Applications for such leave must be in writing on a form provided by the Employer. Leaves of absence will not be given for the purpose of enabling any employee to work for another employer or seek employment elsewhere and any employee who obtains a leave of absence by misrepresenting the purposes therefore shall be discharged. The granting of personal leave of absence to one person for a particular reason shall not establish any precedent for granting a similar leave of absence to any other person for the same or substantially the same reason.

Payment shall be made at the employee's rate of pay, not including premiums, as of his last day worked for the purposes of overtime.

Time off under this Section shall not operate to impair the efficient operation of the Employer.

Military Leave

Request for Leave

Section 12.7 Request for leaves of absence must be made in writing to the Employer prior to the start of the anticipated leave of absence except where it is impossible to do so. During any leave of absence granted under the provisions of this Section, seniority shall accumulate for the duration of any such leave.

Section 12.8 No employee may return from a leave of absence without notifying the Employers at least three (3) working days in advance of such return. No employee may return early from a leave of definite durations without permission of the Employer. The employee will report for work when released from jury duty or witness service.

WAGES

Wages

Section 13.0 The Job Classification and rate ranges applicable thereto are set forth in Appendix A reflect an increase to the salary schedule in the amount of 2.0% effective 01/01/2018, 2% effective 01/01/2019 and 3% effective 01/01/2020 attached hereto and by this reference made a part hereof. Bi-weekly pay will be disbursed by direct deposit as soon as possible by employer to employee to a financial institution of employee's choice.

New Classification(s)

Section 13.1 If during the life of this Agreement, a new job classification is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall establish a job duty and the job rate range applicable thereto and shall promptly notify the Chapter Chairperson in writing of its decision. If the Union believes the rate range is inadequate in terms of established rate ranges for other job classifications covered by this Agreement, the Union shall have the right, within fifteen (15) calendar days after it has been so notified, to initiate negotiations with regard to the rate range assigned to the job classification. If negotiations have not been initiated during said fifteen (15) calendar day period, the rate range so assigned shall become permanent. New classification disputes shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

Reclassification

Section 13.1A Whenever an employee covered by this Agreement believes that substantial changes have been made on a permanent basis in the job which that employee has been permanently assigned to, and if the employee seeks reclassification to a higher or new classification, the employee may process a claim for reclassification to the employee's department head. If the department head believes that there is merit, the department head may request a reclassification of the employee's position at a meeting of the Board of Commissioners. The Commissioners shall make a decision with regard to the reclassification request. The decision of the Commissioners shall not be binding upon the Judges. If the reclassification request is granted, either completely or in part, such decision shall not become a precedent for any other employee as a basis for a claim of reclassification. If the reclassification is denied the matter will be brought up at the next contract negotiations and will be determined by negotiations between the Employer and the Union. Reclassification requests shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.

Placement on Scale

Section 13.2 Employees promoted pursuant to this Agreement shall be paid at the starting rate of the new classification unless this would not result in a pay increase; in which case it will be placed at the next step that will result in an increase in pay. The employee will then progress on the scale based upon the anniversary date of his/her promotion.

A new employee may be hired at the start rate set forth in Appendix "A". The term "new" shall apply to all employees on probationary status. If a newly hired employee has had previous experience in the work for which he was hired, he may be paid a rate in line with his experience and in accordance with the progression rate set forth for his job classification in Appendix "A".
